

WNRN “Hear Together” Internship Opportunity

WNRN’s commitment to being a voice for our community extends to sharing the real issues facing us, and together in partnership with the Charlottesville Area Community Foundation, helping to identify ways to get involved and make a difference.

Through our “Hear Together” profiles, which run during regular programming on our station, we hope to shed light on the issues that face our area and inspire awareness and action. Each piece is a way to spotlight the work of the countless non-profits and volunteers that work tirelessly to improve the lives of people in our area.

WNRN is looking for an intern to specifically work with our managing producer to write, record and produce our “Hear Together” profiles for regular programming.

Job responsibilities:

- Travel to non-profit organizations with our Managing Producer for interview segments.
- Learn to produce recordings for on air segments.
- Research 501(c)(3) Non-Profit organizations to be featured on our “Hear Together” segments.
- Maintain social media for “Hear Together”
- 5-10 hours a week commitment.
- Opportunities to work and attend local concerts of your choosing with a companion.

If you are interested in the position please reach out to Jaclyn Piermarini the Managing Producer for WNRN at Jaclyn@wnrn.org
